Children believe(相信) Santa Claus, with the other name of Father Christmas, will come during the night and fill(装满) their stockings with Christmas presents.

Actually(实际上), Father Christmas is children's father. He dresses up(打扮) in a red coat and waits until children fall asleep(入睡). Then he goes into children's bedrooms, and puts small presents in their stockings.

Christmas Day always begins before breakfast. Some even turn on the light at two o'clock. The first thing after children wake up is to find the presents from Christmas Fathers.
